VIENNA, THE CITY OF DREAMS ...

Apart from being regarded as the City of Music because of its musical legacy, Vienna is also said to be "The City of Dreams", because it was home to the world's first psycho-analyst – Sigmund Freud. The city's roots lie in early Celtic and Roman settlements that transformed into a Medieval and Baroque city, the capital of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. It is well known for having played an essential role as a leading European music centre, from the great age of Viennese Classicism through the early part of the 20th century.

The historic centre of Vienna is rich in architectural ensembles, including Baroque castles and gardens, and the late-19th-century Ringstrasse lined with grand buildings, monuments and parks. However, Austria's capital city isn't just home to the breathtaking Belvedere Palace, bustling Graben Street, and its famous Viennese coffee, it also has the distinct honour of being the world's most livable city.
